“Senior Driving Refresher Course” at Avon Grove Library

WEST GROVE, Pa. – March 8, 2018 – Community members are invited to join Avon Grove Library for a Senior Driving Refresher Course on Thursday, March 29, 2-3:30 p.m. Led by Matthew Eskridge of AAA, this one-time class will give driving pointers that everyone can use. Featured topics include distractions, rules of the road, and more. The course is geared specifically towards senior citizens as they learn how to adjust for slower reflexes, weaker vision, and other changes to their driving skills.

“We’re happy to be able to offer free educational programs like this one,” said Lori Schwabenbauer, director of the library. “Avon Grove Library is growing into a true community center where people can find all kinds of information as well as enrichment.”

This program is free and open to all ages. The class is strictly educational and does not qualify attendees for a discount on insurance. No registration is required to participate.

Avon Grove Library is located at 117 Rosehill Avenue in the West Grove Borough Building (610-869-2004, www.avongrovelibrary.org). The program will be held in the Community Meeting Room.

Avon Grove Library is a vital educational institution, providing equal opportunity for self-directed learning, research assistance and instruction, and enriching experiences for over 30,000 people of all ages in southern Chester County. The library is a member of the Chester County Library System.
